

University of Alabama at Birmingham Rookie Award Winner for Relay for Life

CONGRATULATIONS are in order for the Sigma Alpha Lambda members from the University of Alabama at Birmingham! Raising over $1,100 for The American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, they won the prestigious Rookie Award, which is given to the new team that earns the most in fundraising.

The Sigma Alpha Lambda theme for this year's Relay for Life was (insert their theme and synopsis here). Christine Higgins, Chapter President, is enthusiastic about the dedication of Sigma Alpha Lambda members. "We really stood together to create a diverse and dependable team of people," she said. The Sigma Alpha Lambda (SAL) Team devoted the entire night to walking on the track, which exceeded their $1000 goal. Enthusiasm and wholehearted determination empowered the SAL Relay for Life team to not only win the Rookie Award this year, but also celebrate cancer survivors, remember those they have lost from it, and raise money to help current cancer victims fight back.
